

WHY IT IS THUS.

Speaking of the miserable pitance doled out to the press this year by the Republican State Central Committee, the Gazette remarks:

"If the newspapers would refuse to do the political work necessary to conducting a winning campaign in this State without an understanding of how much they should be paid, this growl would be stopped. In another campaign the Gazette will know all about it before it publishes a line. This working for nothing and boarding yourself in an endeavor to elevate a few cheap men into public favor is unprofitable in every sense."

The reason for this state of affairs can be briefly explained.

Some years ago a committee from the Nevada Press Association waited on the State Central Committee, and by stating briefly that for several years the newspaper advertising bills had remained only partially paid, the representatives of the Press Association were enabled to secure an appropriation and get it in advance of the campaign.

As a result the newspapers got about twice what they had been in the habit of getting, and got it in advance.

The next year they did the same thing, and then a few disgruntled parties began to growl at the way the committee divided the funds.

This year the committee, of which the editor of the APPEAL was one, decided to let the papers run their own business with the Central Committee in order to see if they got along any better, and they were accordingly left to the tender mercies of Cap. Lord, the life-long Secretary of the State Central Committee.

After the publishers scrutinize their checks with a powerful magnifying glass they will conclude that in future they had better let the regular Executive Committee of the Association manage the business.

This, gentlemen, is merely a little object lesson, and will result in lots of experience and future good.

The APPEAL's advice to the papers is to club together, hire a first-class lawyer and sue the State Central Committee for the balance due.

The speakers are paid, the band men are paid, the torch lights are paid for, the hall rent, votes, and all that, and last of all the papers get what's left; about enough to pay for the extra typesetting during the campaign.

We will also state as a little pointer that after a certain sum was set aside for advertising, the proposition was made to turn it all loose in the campaign for other expenses and let the papers go. It came very near being carried, too.

The mothers of Oakland have been doing some practical work in the interest of temperance and good morals. On Thanksgiving night a committee of three secreted themselves at a convenient distance, and kept tally on the number of young women and girls that went into a well-known side-entrance saloon. When the count reached nineteen the good ladies in ambush could stand no more, and they went home, resolved, however, to be heard from at a future Council meeting.

There is a story current that the Queen and Prince of Wales are at odds because the Queen objected to the presence of a certain American lady at a recent levee held by the Prince as representative of his mother. When she took him to task for the woman's presence he invited the woman's husband to dine with him, and the Queen has been still further offended.

Now that the baseball season is over, the vital question with the players is whether or not they have saved enough out of their salaries to pay for beer during the Winter.

THE MANHATTAN

Life Insurance Co.,

OF NEW YORK.

ASSETS $12,000,000.

BETTER THAN A

GOVERNMENT BOND.

The MANHATTAN for a limited period will offer the residents of Nevada a Bond Combining Insurance and investment that is in reach of all and which every healthy able-bodied man in the State should possess—for the protection of himself and family. In explanation read what follows: Suppose a special agent of the U. S. Treasury Department should call on you today and say: The Government would like to sell you bonds for any amount between $1,000 and $30,000 and if it is not convenient for you to make the investment at once, we will allow you to pay for the bonds in Ten Equal Annual Installments.

And, suppose, in addition to this, the Government, wishing to make this the most desirable investment in the world, should stipulate in the bond, not only to pay them at the end of the term, but in case of your previous death, to pay them to your family and AT THE SAME TIME RELEASE YOUR FAMILY FROM PAYING ANY FURTHER MONEY.

Would you not at once close with such an offer? And yet this is practically what the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, of New York has done and is doing.
